WHO WE ARE...HOW WE LIVE

Sunday, we begin a new preaching series entitled: Who We Are...How We Live. We will spend four weeks taking a fresh look at who we are as believers and who we are as a church. As we listen while the scriptures speak, there should come a re-identification of just who we really are as those who have claimed Jesus as our Savior. There should also come fresh reminders of how our lives should be lived individually and as a body together.

Part of being flesh and blood means that we have to be regularly reminded of things we already know and already believe to be true. We sometimes get stale and forget what is most important and that to which we have been called. This series is designed, not to lecture us, but to encourage us to remember who we are, to think about what we have been given in Christ and to recommit ourselves daily to the mission God has placed before us. I look forward to sharing with you! Jim Brown

As we bounce back from the winter ice storm, we continue to express gratitude to the work crews. MLEC, County, City, or support from outside areas, we thank you for your dedication. We appreciate everyone in the different locations throughout the county that provided a place of warmth during the power outage. We serve God by serving others. Jesus came to serve, not to be served. (Mark 10:45) Those that this church family assisted with lodging, food, water, fuel, kerosene, a meal, utility assistance, and transportation, saw a servant mentality that comes from being "In Step With The Savior." The opportunity we have to serve others not only benefits those receiving help, but also enriches our lives. Serving others is a vital expression of our faith that expresses the love, compassion, and humility of our Lord. When we engage in acts of service, we have a positive impact on those around us and honor God in the process. Peter in his first epistle encourages us, "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms." (I Peter 4:10) We have appreciated Jim's series "The Unique Love of Jesus." and look forward to the series "Who We Are...How We Live." Let us walk each day "In Step With The Savior." We are looking forward to seeing you on Sunday. Your Elders

Carter's Corner...

LAST WEEK LOOKED DIFFERENT THAN ANY OF US PLANNED. With the snow and ice impacting travel and safety across our area, all youth events were cancelled. While we missed being together, we are thankful for patience, flexibility, and care shown toward families as everyone navigated a challenging week. As conditions improve, we are hopeful to get back up and going and return to our regular rhythm.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON BROUGHT A BRIGHT SPOT as our Sparks and Intermediates enjoyed a fun outing at MADE at the Local Place. The kids had a great time learning how pottery is glazed and painting pieces of their own. It was a good afternoon of creativity, conversation, and connection. A big thank you to Ross and Leslie Martin for organizing the outing and for hosting the kids with a great lunch.

WE ARE LOOKING AHEAD TO THIS SUNDAY NIGHT with our Senior High Super Bowl Party in The Lighthouse. Students are invited to stay after evening service through the end of the game and are asked to bring their favorite game-day finger food or desserts to share. This will be a relaxed and fun opportunity for our students to spend time together and reconnect.

SCRIPTURE REMINDS US that God often works through interruption rather than convenience. Jesus frequently met people not when conditions were ideal, but right where they were—in storms, on roads, in homes, and in everyday moments. Disruptions have a way of slowing us down just enough to notice needs we might otherwise pass by.

THIS WEEK'S CHALLENGE flows from that truth: be attentive to the needs around you. Look for one opportunity to serve, encourage, or check on someone this week. Ministry often begins with simply noticing and responding. When we allow interruptions to open our eyes, God can use even an unexpected week to accomplish meaningful work. Have a great week!

In Him, Carter
