A Time For Renewal

Recently I have been doing some reading about interim ministry in an effort to improve myself and to try and be as effective as possible. I have been encouraged by those who know much more about this than do I and the insight they have shared. One recurrent theme about a time such as ours is the theme of renewal.

Interim periods are times between times and they are really good times for reflection and for growth. Think about the disciples. In the space of a single week, they experienced the call for crucifixion, the horror of the death of Jesus, His burial, their great fear and then the glory of His resurrection. What a time for deep and personal reflection about who they were, their calling and what God expected them to do next.

After Jesus ascended back to the Father, they were constantly in prayer, waiting for the promised Holy Spirit to come upon them in power and getting ready for the most important task of their lifetimes.

This 'time' that we currently share, is the perfect time for us to reflect individually upon the call God has placed on our lives and it is surely a good time for us to reflect collectively as a church family on our faith, our commitment and the mission of this body to honor God and to reach the lost.

I hope we will all use this 'in between' time, not to coast, but to dig in, renew our commitments and to come out stronger, better, more faithful and more determined to be about the business of the kingdom. We have important work to do. Let's do it!

(College Secret Involvement)
Our college students will be returning to their schools again soon, so we are gearing up for our CSI. We hope many will want to support this ministry. There are information sheets and a sign-up form on the table in the foyer for all who are interested in joining this effort again this year. See Ken or Tina Dickerson if you have any questions.

Thank You

The Family of Donna Martin writes:

"To our dear church family, We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to our church family and friends, who all stood by us during the passing of our beloved mother. Thank you for walking beside us with love and compassion through this difficult season and helping us carry the weight of our grief. Every call, every text, every card in the mail, every plate of food, bouquet of flowers, kind word, and quiet hug reminded us that we are not alone.

Thank you for helping us celebrate her life. And thank you for walking with us, just as she walked with so many of you in love and faith. With heartfelt thanks..."

Brenda Jacobs writes: "To the Centerville Church of Christ, I want to thank you for the beautiful throw in memory of my brother Marvis Binkley. Also, thanks to everyone for all the cards, calls and text messages during this time of our grief."

David & Stacy Breece write: "Thank you so much for the beautiful throw that was given at the passing of my brother, Lynn Gibson. We deeply appreciate the calls, texts, and prayers."

Farris Baker, Jr. writes: "Thank you for keeping us in your thoughts and prayers at this difficult time in our lives. The throw you sent was beautiful."

Sunday was a wonderful day! The worship was uplifting and there was a good number in attendance. The weather continues to be hot and humid, but we are thankful for the occasional afternoon rain. We appreciate Jim and Angela Brown being with us for this interim time. Jim has begun an in-depth study on the Book of Job on Sunday evening; we encourage everyone to be in attendance and be a part of this study of the life of Job. Our Gospel Meeting with Doug Burleson begins August 10th. Begin inviting folks, postcards for mailing are available in the foyer. It was written "People of character do the right thing, not because they think it will change the world but because they refuse to be changed by the world." Paul's letter to the Roman Christians is definitely words we must heed to in these present times. "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." (Romans 12:2) Let worship this Sunday be a top priority for you and your family.
