The Ministry Of Reconciliation

Sunday, as we come to the third installment of our four-part series, 'The Kingdom Of God In My Life', we will give focus to what Paul calls 'the ministry of reconciliation.' In his second letter to the Corinthian church, Paul lays out our calling to be reconciled to God and to each other. It is a marvelous and powerful challenge.

A significant part of that challenge that we will explore is the call to no longer live for ourselves, but for the one who died for us and who has been raised again. That's a hard thing for humans to do! Every day we are encouraged by all that surrounds us to live for self, to look out for number 1 and to accept the mantra, 'It's your life. No one tells you what to do!'

The great battle of the universe is not in a war on some distant battlefield. The greatest battle is between the kingdom of darkness and the kingdom of light. It is a battle fought daily for your heart.

We will read and listen and study together and be encouraged about who we are, the promise that we have in Jesus and the power we have been given to be people and to be a church of reconciliation. I look forward to sharing with you.

THE INTERN'S INSIGHT

Hello Church family,

Just like that, the summer has evaporated before my very eyes. I struggle to find the right words to summarize my time here thus far. God has blessed me very richly to have brought me here. Centerville is a truly special place and a thriving part of the Lord's church. I am extremely grateful to everyone here for making me feel so welcomed. During my time here I was blessed and encouraged to see 11 young people give their lives to Christ and that is something I will cherish for the rest of my days. A special thanks to Carter and the Elders for giving me the opportunity to take part in the service that goes on here. You all have shown me Christian love and that is worth more than any earthly riches one can dream of. I hope I have encouraged you all a fraction of the encouragement I have received. God be with you all, and I look forward to seeing you all again soon.

In Christian Love, Cooper Brown
