"From Where I Sit"

Sunday morning we spoke about the difference in knowledge and wisdom and the ability to turn one into the other. The Apostle Paul wrote: Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (Phi. 3:13-14). Paul had knowledge, but this shows his wisdom. Paul says he was pressing toward the mark. The pursuit is not grasping after something unreal and unknown. He was pressing on with godliness and contentment. He had learned in whatsoever state he was in to be content, that's wisdom.

To be happy in life we all need something to do; we need a mission to fill. As preachers teach loud and clear so people will know the battle for truth is on. Do not be distracted by the tolerance of a new ideology of peaceful coexistence with everyone and everything that is being pushed upon us. Let us stand for the right and not lose sight of our duty to serve the Lord, do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with our God, that's wisdom.

John said, "We love him, because he first loved us" (1 John 4:19). It brings happiness to love God. We are to love the Lord with all our heart. Why, because He first loved us, and we should return that love to Him. Paul said, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began" (Titus. 1:2). It's the hope of heaven that keeps us going through the sickness, pain, disappointment, suffering, and hardship that this life brings. Remember what Paul wrote, these present sufferings are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed. God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. There's our hope, the promise of a home eternal in heaven with God and Christ, that to me is knowledge encompassed with wisdom.

Yes, knowledge is knowing that a tomato is a fruit, but wisdom is not putting it into fruit salad. There is a place for both and both knowledge and wisdom play an important part in our lives daily. Knowledge is knowing the scriptures; wisdom is putting into practice daily in our lives.

Knowing who God is (Knowledge); following God (Wisdom). God is faithful!

God Bless -Todd

The Shepherd's Pen

Sunday was a wonderful day! We had a good crowd in attendance and appreciated our visitors very much. This Sunday evening following worship will be our Bible Times Meal to kick-off Vacation Bible School. Plan on being a part of this fellowship time together. The theme for VBS is "Seek God First". Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday beginning at 9am. It is followed by Day Camp at Camp Meribah. In Luke 19:1-10 we read the story of Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. Because of this fact he was despised by the Jews. He was known for his unethical character. He was probably very lonely because no one wanted to spend any time with someone who was stealing their substance. He was rich and found that riches did not satisfy the deepest needs of his heart. How did Zacchaeus seek after Jesus? He sought after Christ in truth and not in pretense. He may have been the chief of sinners in the eyes of many, but there was something inside of him that was hungering and thirsting after righteousness. He sought Christ courageously, not letting obstacles detour him. There was the multitude around Jesus and Zacchaeus could not get near him because of the crowd, but the Providence of God had allowed for a sycamore tree to grow in the path of Christ, and he climbed up into that sycamore tree that he might look upon Christ. He sought Christ humbly.wery.few.wealthy.men.would.be.willing.to.climb a tree like a little child, but little Zacchaeus was willing. When Jesus looked up and saw him in the tree, He said, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house." Looking forward to seeing you this Sunday. Let worship this Sunday be a top priority for you and your family.
