FEARFULLY AND WONDERFULLY MADE - PART 2

This Sunday, as we return to our current preaching series, 'Fearfully And Wonderfully Made', we come to the third component that Paul describes that all of us are made of, our physical selves. While the case can easily be made that our spirit and soul are of much greater importance and that our physical tent is the least of the three, it is so often what we spend the most time on and give the most attention to. The problem with that is very simple, namely, you cannot get to heaven in the physical body you now wear. Perishable has to be laid down. Perishable has to be exchanged for imperishable.

Paul is going to describe for us the process of transformation. It will happen in the blink of an eye. It will be glorious. It will be victorious. It will be forever! It will certainly be something that must not be missed.

As we continue this important discussion, think hard about who you are, why you were made and what your purpose here on this earth is. I look forward to sharing with you Sunday!

The best way to describe the weather the last two days (Monday and Tuesday) is Brrr! What a transformation from the weather we had on Sunday. With the weather there will always be a transformation day to day, week to week, and month to month. A continual process as the days ahead we transform into warmer weather once again. In our spiritual life a transformation happens as we walk in step with the Savior. It is a continual process as we grow spiritually. Paul wrote in Romans 12:2, "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." Transformation is not merely a change of external behavior, but an internal renewal of our thoughts and perspective. This transformation process begins to align our thinking with God's truth which guides us in our daily walk with God. A walk that is "In Step With The Savior" that reflects that good and acceptable and perfect will of God. We look forward to seeing you on Sunday.

Your Elders

Carter's Corner...

This past weekend, our Centerville Church of Christ Youth Ministry spent time together on our Sr. High Retreat, and it was truly a blessing. From laughter and late nights to worship and meaningful conversations, God gave us a special time to grow closer to Him and to each other. We were encouraged everywhere we went by how well our students represented Christ, and I am incredibly thankful for this group. Every retreat is different, but this one will be remembered for a long time. Enjoy the photos!

Ken & Tina Dickerson write: "We were so touched and are so grateful for the beautiful and thoughtful gifts given to the elders and their wives, ministers, and staff recently. Such kindness and generosity is truly humbling. When searching for land in Middle Tennessee 10 years ago, our decision to move to this area was based on our experiences when visiting the Lord's Church in Centerville. We felt like we were family and that we were home. Thank you for continuing to bless our lives in such meaningful ways."

Gary Gatewood writes: " I sincerely appreciate the gift presented to the Elders and staff. It is an honor to be part of such a considerate and supportive church family. With gratitude and respect..."
